

Brandy Lynn Confer

BAND STORY

Brandy Lynn Confer has shown herself to be a musician to watch with Stress and the Rhythm of the Word. Her music is filled with delicate, but deliberate sound and lyrics that make you think. Working with Jason Rubal (Dresden Dolls, Amanda Palmer, Bitter Ruin) you get a sound that feels organic and as typical with artists he represents, Confer is less mainstream and more from the gut. She brings out her inner strengths and throws in a few demons as well. This album has a folk rock feel with grit and a complexity that will make you take her seriously as a lead guitarist and an artist with lyrics that take you places that are uniquely her own.
